New Season Getting Up and Running

The Wee Roes

Training for the Wee Roes has commenced once more at The Strabane Academy 3g pitch. Training takes place every Wednesday between 600pm and 700pm. New Players are more than welcome as we cater for players from P2 to P7. The main aim of The Wee Roes is for kids to learn the basic skills of Gaelic Games in a fun environment, and in turn make new friends!

The Giggle in The Glen

Last October we had a top-class comedy night in The Glen with Belfast comic William Thompson headlining. It went so well we're doing it again!

This time Lurgan funny man Sean Hegarty will be the headline act with support from the brilliant Fintan Harvey and the excellent Eamon McElwee. The evening will once more be MC'ed by Big Massive himself, Ronan Boyle. Tickets are selling fast but, priced at £10, can be obtained via Eventbrite.

Girls Coaching Underway

Coaching for the ladies U12s and U14s takes place every Weds evening from 730pm to 830pm. Training takes place in the MUGA or the community hall, so players are asked to bring footwear for both.

Training for our senior ladies gets underway 28th Feb.

New Players are welcome and if anyone needs further details, please contact Clodagh Devine on (07933477485).

Coach The Coach

The Club are seeking more coaches to assist with the various teams. As such we're offering a 'coach the coach' session on Tues 21st at 7pm.

The session is designed for anyone starting on the coaching ladder, coming back to coaching after time away or coaches with experience.

Everyone welcome and we'd be delighted to see new faces.

Roes with the Red Hands

- Owen Roes are once again very proud to have several representatives in Tyrone underage squads for the season ahead where Taylor Lee O'Neill (U16 Ladies), and Aidan Hegarty (Tyrone Minors) all will be in County action.

In addition, our senior player Oran Roddy was selected in the St Marys squad for the recent Sigerson Cup. 'The Ranch' went furthest of all the Ulster sides before losing on penalties in the semi-final.

Orstend 10 Miler

Sunday 14th May is a date for your diary as we host a bumper 10-mile road race. Kindly sponsored by Orsted, the challenge is expected to attract a huge field with top class prizes on offer.

The course will see runners climb towards the summit of Owenreagh before taking on the long descent for home via a lap of scenic Moorlough.

Healy Park Adventure

Underage stars Darragh Porter and Lucas Phillips had a big day out recently as they were selected to perform in the half time game at the recent NFL game between Tyrone and Donegal.

The two lads were not phased by the crowd of 8000 people who watched the game and to cap off a great day, Tyrone, with Owen Roes' Cathal McShane on target, notched a win. Well done men!
